Proceedings

Mr. T. Y. Chang appeared for the Police.
Mr. Tseu Ming Ge. appeared for S. P. S. B.
Mr. Y. T. Van appeared for the accused.

Judge to Mr. Tseu:--The reply of Hanchang has still not arrived at this court yet, but during the remand the Court has obtained the record from the Garrison Commander Headquarters.

Accused in answer to the Judge:--I do not know men named Kung Kung Tsch, Yang or Sih Ts Tsch.

Judge to the Accused:--In the record you are implicated by a man named Sih Ts Tsch.

Accused:--I do not know Sih Ts Tsch. I have been a business man for over twenty years and I do not know anything about political affairs.

Mr. Tseu:--I ask the accused be handed over to the S. P. S. B. because the accused is implicated by Sih Ts Tsch. The correct address and the name of the accused mentioned in the record are enough to prove that the implications are true.

Mr. Van:--The S. P. S. B. has not produced any evidence to show that the accused has an alias as Kung Ching Kung. The accused is in no way connected with any political activity so I object to the accused being handed over to the S. P. S. B.

Mr. Chang:--It is undoubtedly that the accused has been a business man so far as the nature of the documents seized is concerned. Whether or not the evidence produced by the S. P. S. B. is sufficient for extradition, the Police entirely leave it to Court to decide.

Decision

Accused to be handed over to the Public Safety Bureau. (Handed over on 5/2/34.)

Wong Kung Chuh was arrested at No.347 Hardoon Road and Yang Ts Foo was arrested at No.410 Hardoon Rd. They were both brought to Court on the same day.

Mr T.Y.Chang :- The Police in the course of the enquiries at the Boarding house ascertained that the boarding house previously went under the name of Yue Fong. The boy from the Boarding house at No.23 Hoopoh Road is present to day.

RECORD OF INVESTIGATION.

Accused in this case appeared before the Kiangsu (2nd Branch) High Court on 11-1-34 and was remanded in custody to 13-1-34, the Court directing the Police to assist accused to bring to Court whatever documents he might have to prove his bona fides as a tobacco leaf dealer.

Removed from the cells at 9 a.m. 12-1-34, accused took D.S. Logan and C.D.S. 137 to Room 131 of Lane 203, House 23, Moopoh Road, where he produced a suitcase containing a quantity of letters and other documents relating to his business activities. Same was seized and will be produced in Court as evidence.

At 10 a.m. 12-1-34, accused was taken to the Special Branch (Political) where he made a statement to D.S. Sansom, after which he was taken to the Finger Print Bureau and photographed, and thereafter returned to the cells.

From enquiries made by the Police it would appear that accused is a genuine tobacco leaf dealer and that he has been engaged in that business back and fore between Honan and Shanghai a period of some ten years, during which period of time he had business dealings with various merchants in Shanghai.

Acting on the authority of a warrant issued at the request of the Shanghai Bureau of Public Safety, the Municipal Police at 2.20 a.m. January 11 arrested a male Chin se named Kan Ching-ming (耿長) alias Kan Ching-zung (耿發昌) in premises No. H.23, Lane 203, Hupeh Road. He was taken before the Second Branch Kiangsu High Court on the morning of January 11, when the case was remanded until January 13.

A copy of a communist handbill entitled "Open Letter to the Chinese People in connection with the Fokien Incident", issued by the Central Committee of the Chinese Communist Party and dated December 13, 1933, was obtained by the Municipal Police on January 10, 1934, in Western Chapel. This document characterizes the "People's Revolutionary Government" of Fokien as a camouflaged reactionary regime and calls upon the toiling masses of Fokien to arm themselves against Japanese Imperialism and to demand the retrocession of the Japanese Concession at Foochow.
